

MAYSVILLE, KY., APRIL 8, 1868.

The Mule Trade.—The Paris Kentuckian, of the 21st inst., says: "W. H. Crosswhite returned yesterday from Mississippi, where he spent the greater part of the past winter. He took down 67 head, some ten or twelve of them horses. He reports that he found on his arrival the dulllest market he ever saw; but by holding on and working hard he sold out at a small profit. Mr. Crosswhite is enthusiastic in his praise of the Mississippians. He says that they deserve the highest encomiums for the heroic endurance they display under the indignities heaped upon them. No men ever worked harder or more faithfully to pay their debts. Some rode night and day, and pained, pledged and sold everything available, to get money to pay for stock which they had bought on credit. The negroes are working better than before, and would cause no trouble if they were not interfered with by the soldiers and Bureau. He thinks many of them will vote with the Conservatives if they are not frightened away from the polls by Radical emissaries. They have learned the difference between a Southern man and a Yankee—the former will give them a quarter, and the latter will not rest till he swindles them out of it. The planters will put in a great deal more corn than usual this season, and less cotton. They believe that the recent rise in cotton is only a trick of the speculators to induce them to plant more. When Mr. C. left, good mules would have brought a good price."

Mr. E. D. Baxter returned yesterday from New Orleans, where he has been for some time. He had disposed of some hundred head, partly on commission, losing a little on some lots and making no others. On the average he did tolerably well. He brought back his two magnificent mules, eighteen hands high, probably the finest specimens of that class of stock in Kentucky. He had sold them in New Orleans for $4,000, but one of them was taken sick and he took them back. He has taken $150 worth of premiums with them in Louisiana. They are really wonders in size, form, muscular development, and activity. Mr. Baxter was in the Bayou Foulche country a short time, and reports a better aspect of affairs in that section. He says that the planters are devoting their attention to grain raising more than to other crops. They are planting corn largely. Mr. B. traded a pair of mules for a bear, which he brought up with him, and he has taken him to the neighborhood of Flat Rock.

McClintock and Bowden shipped 46 head yesterday to Pennsylvania, and will start another lot next week. These are said to be as fine droves as ever left this country. Aleck McClintock says the home market is improving somewhat, and prices are better for good stock.

Wm. Talbot, son of Esquire John Talbot, has returned from North Carolina. He had a good drive, and by hard work managed to sell out at tolerable prices for cash.

W. B. Ford of Clark, has returned from Mississippi. He sold out after much effort at $124 to $180 and got his money. Mr. Ford says that if the planters do no better this year than last, they will starve. Bacon hams are worth 25 cents per lb., and other things in proportion. Sweet potatoes were the cheapest articles of food in that section. The soil and climate of the South are admirably adapted to the culture of sweet potatoes, and we have no doubt that they will be found profitable not only for home economy, but also as a money crop.

Prompt Payment—Benefit of Life Insurance.—Very recently, Captain John S. Davis, jr., of New Albany, who was a gallant soldier in the recent war, and a most estimable gentleman, deceased. Fully aware of the uncertainties of life, he had been wise enough to secure a policy in that admirably conducted institution, the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company of this city. No sooner had the secretary, Judge L. T. Huston, heard of the death than he promptly forwarded the sum of five thousand dollars to Mrs. Davis. This is characteristic of the liberal and energetic management of this institution, which is controlled entirely by our own citizens, and is peculiarly worthy of their support. Eventually it must amply repay every one who invests in its policies.

We publish the receipt of Mrs. Davis, as well as the testimonial of Hon. John S. Davis, jr., of New Albany, who is one of the most prominent lawyers and influential citizens in Indiana:

NEW ALBANY, IND.,
March 23rd, 1868.

Received of L. T. Huston, Secretary of the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Kentucky, by the hand of W. W. Johnson, General Agent, five thousand dollars ($5,000) the amount for my deceased husband, John S. Davis, jr., was insured in said company.

BELLE R. DAVIS.

NEW ALBANY, IND.,
March 23rd, 1868.

I most cheerfully recommend the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Kentucky to the public. I know most of the directors and officers of the company, and know them to be honest and honorable, and men of large means. The conduct of the company toward the wife of my son, Captain John S. Davis, jr., was indeed all that I could ask. Those who wish to insure in a good, safe company cannot do better than go to the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company, whose principal office is at Louisville.

JOHN S. DAVIS.

We clip the above from the Louisville Democrat of a recent date. This is the second loss of $5,000 which the company has promptly met within the last few months. It gives us pleasure to add our recommendation to that of the writer of the above note. We enjoy a personal acquaintance with most of the gentlemen who are officers and directors in the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Louisville, and we know them to be men of the highest standing for integrity, and possessed of ample means. It is a safe and reliable company, and is managed with consummate prudence. We recommend it to those desiring to take out policies. George B. Gill is the local agent for this city and county, and will take pleasure in taking applications and attending to any business for the company.

Tribute of Respect.—At a called meeting of the Ciceronean Society, of Augusta College, Ky., March 16th, 1868, a committee consisting of Lucien Hall, Byron H. Dyson, and George W. Bradford, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Having received the sad intelligence of the sudden death of Thomas Gaines, a member of this Society, by the explosion of the steamer Magnolia, on the 18th inst., therefore,

Resolved, That in him we have lost a most useful, zealous, distinguished, and cherished member.

Resolved, That his church, his college, and his country have lost a noble and gifted youth, who, moral in character, gentle in disposition, quiet in demeanor, courteous in manners, dignified in deportment, generous in friendship, strong in intellect, and eloquent in debate, combined talents and virtues which promised in the world a career of great usefulness and high distinction.

Resolved, That we extend our warmest sympathy to the relatives and friends of our beloved brother, and with the assurance that with them we must long lament his early loss, whilst we deem it our duty to bow in humble submission to the dispensation of an overruling Providence.

Resolved. That as a manifestation of our respect, esteem, and grief, we will wear a badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the parents of the deceased; and also to the Mayville Eagle and Western Recorder, with a request for the publication.

SCOTT H. BARNETT, Pres't.

J. ROBERT MINOR, Sec'y.

Insurance.—We call attention to the Exposure made by the Anna Insurance Company, of Hartford, Connecticut, in January, 1868. The total assets of the Company are $1,833,549, which consists of cash, real estate, loans on mortgages, bonds and stocks, all the investments being in the best securities. The total liabilities are $465,248. This shows that the assets are more than $4,000,000 greater than the debts of the Company. The Anna has had an existence for many years, during which it has paid on losses the sum of $23,000,000. It has been truly tried in the ordeal of fire and it has come out unscathed. We have never known the Anna to resist the payment of a just claim, and the agent in this city, Mr. Jos. F. Bodrick, is particularly careful that all losses on policies issued by him are paid with the utmost promptness. Mr. Bodrick has opened an office over Mr. Cooper's tin store, where he may be found during business hours, ready to give any information desired. The people could not insure in a safer company. The Company could not have found a better agent.

The Annual Meeting of the members of the Union Agricultural Society for Mason and Broken counties, was held on the 4th day of April 1868, at which time the following officers were chosen for the year:

President—J. Taylor Bradford.

Vice Presidents—Jas. B. Claybrook, Wm. Dougherty, W. W. Baldwin.

Secretary—Jas. A. Kackley.

Treasurer—Jas. C. Savage.

DIRECTORS FOR MASON COUNTY.

H. Smoot, S. Forman, J. E. French, E. Lloyd, J. Mennen, M. Worthington, T. Pollock, B. D. Owens.

FOR BROKEN COUNTY.

Col. L. J. Bradford, Dr. A. H. Pollock, Dr. C. S. Savage, Judge Jno. H. Bonde, H. T. Lloyd, Jas. M. Browning.

A. J. Markley.

The next annual exhibition will commence on the 15th day of September next.

A Good Grist Mill is an institution in a neighborhood or town. Such a one is now in operation at Mayville, and is owned by Messrs. Cliff, Browning & Palmer, under the skillful direction of our friend Alf. Browning. This mill turns out a beautiful article of corn meal at the rate of 10 bushels every 15 minutes, or 400 bushels from sun to sun, which the handy housewife finds no difficulty in making into most palatable batter and Johnny cakes.

A Card.—Important considerations induce me to withdraw from the contest for the Circuit Clerkship, and in doing so I tender my acknowledgments to those of my friends who have favored my claims—believing that they will understand and appreciate the motives that induce me to withdraw.

HENRY PERMAN.

Mayville, Ky., April 7, 1868.

Penny Wise and a Pound Foolish was the man who bit off his nose to spite his face; but not so with the man who bought a dozen bottles of J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor, and cured his whole family of Scrofula. For sale by J. J. Wood.

Good Results are always noticed in the use of White Pine Compound. Try it for all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Kidneys, and see if it is not so. For sale by J. J. Wood.

Dry Goods—We call special attention to the advertisement of McDougle & Brother, in another column. Their selection of goods comprises the most beautiful and best articles in the dry goods line. They are polite and accommodating to customers, and have made many friends by their urbanity. Their reputation for fair dealing is unimpeachable. Go to them for your spring purchases.
